Niagara Falls City Council & City Controller Presents

2018 “LET’S TALK BUDGET” COMMUNITY MEETING SCHEDULE

Niagara Falls, N.Y. – The Niagara Falls City Council will host the first of four “Let’s Talk Budget” community meetings beginning in April 2018. These meetings will provide an opportunity for the public to meet with their Council Members to ask questions and express concerns regarding the budget.

Chairman Andrew P. Touma – “Let’s Talk Budget initiative is a great opportunity to receive input from residents regarding the budget. We will explain the budget cycle, structures, sources of city revenue, typical expenditure categories, and discuss the characteristics of city budgets as a work plan.”

City Controller Daniel Morello – “We want to be as transparent as possible when it comes to the budget and the City’s finances. These meetings will provide an opportunity for that.”
